Welcome to
The Office of Academic Links

The Office of Academic Links (OAL) serves as the international relations arm for the University. OAL promotes and facilitates the internationalisation of the University in its research, teaching and learning programmes so as to seek recognition for the University as a leader on the global stage and to nurture students to have a high degree of inter-cultural sensitivity, tolerance and a global perspective.

OAL will serve as your home department during your time at CUHK and provide a single point of contact to facilitate all aspects of your studies, both before and after arrival. Some of the assistance you will receive include:

- Admission & visa application
- Pre-arrival preparation
- Course registration
- Orientation activities
- On-campus housing arrangement
- Cultural programmes

The first student exchange programme at CUHK was launched in 1965 with the University of California system. Since then, CUHK has continued to receive students through 340 programmes with partner institutions in more than 36 countries/regions. With a population of over 3,000 international visiting students each year, the CUHK campus is truly an international melting-pot.
Hong Kong
Asia's World City, City of Life

Hong Kong is Asia's World City. A city that never sleeps with non-stop intensity. A perfect blend of fascinating contrasts where East meets West, where busy city pace meets natural countryside, and where endless skyscrapers meet traditional lifestyle. A variety of rich and diverse experiences packed in an easy and fast to get around city.

Experience life in an international cosmopolitan
Seven percent of Hong Kong's population of over seven million are from foreign countries, creating multi-cultural lifestyles that are unique to the city.

Learn about business and trade in the world's freest economy
Hong Kong has exceptional autonomy in trade and business where many multi-national corporations establish Asian headquarters here. Many people come to learn the secrets of Hong Kong's success.

Follow traces of Chinese and Western cultures
Traditional Chinese values such as loyalty to friends and family, and respect for the elderly are well preserved while its history as a former British colony has left a legacy of western ways.

Explore the outdoors
Over seventy percent of Hong Kong is covered by national parks and greenery. Escape the buzzing city life on one of the world's most convenient public transportation system and indulge yourself in the spectacular countryside.

Eat and shop around the clock
Street stalls and shopping malls offer great bargains and operate until late in the evening. Chinese and international cuisines are available and delicious night snacks can be found at 24-hour eateries.

Travel to Mainland China and Asia in a blink
The commuter train from CUHK reaches the border of Mainland China in just 25 minutes. A day trip to Shenzhen or study breaks to Beijing or Shanghai are only some of the extensive options available. Being in the centre of Asia, travelling around is extremely fast and easy. Flying to Japan, Korea, Singapore, Thailand or Vietnam only takes a nap.
Come Study @ CUHK

Getting around the city
At the bottom of the campus is the University Station. Travelling north for 20 minutes will take you to Lo Wu, the border of Hong Kong and China where travellers and locals frequently go for delicious food, handbags, electronic gadgets, and cheap massages. Travelling south for 30 minutes will take you to the CBD of the Kowloon Peninsula and another 10 minutes will get you to Central on the Hong Kong Island. The campus is conveniently located in Shatin, a suburb in the northeastern part of the city. It is primarily a residential area with a population of approximately 650,000. There’s nothing short to do in Shatin. It is home to one of two horse racecourses in Hong Kong, the Hong Kong Heritage Museum, the Ten Thousand Buddhas Monastery, and the New Town Plaza shopping centre where you can shop until you drop!

Living on campus
There are 41 residential halls (or hostels as they are called) at CUHK. International students are placed in the hostels, providing not only convenience, but also additional opportunities to get to know the locals through the many formal and informal activities organised by the hostels and its residents. Besides, on-campus accommodation at CUHK is extremely affordable!

Studying about China and other disciplines
Given its geographical location, traditions and ties, students enjoy special advantages in the study of China at CUHK. This ranges from the humanities and social sciences, to business as well as the sciences. Different specialties in engineering including electronic, information, automation engineering command world-leading positions. CUHK’s Business, Law, and Medical Schools are reputable training grounds for professionals in their respective fields as well as centres of seminal research.

Experiencing the unique college system
CUHK is the only university in Hong Kong with a collegiate system. The nine colleges of CUHK offer a plethora of non-formal learning opportunities to complement the formal curricula. Undergraduate international students are assigned to one of the colleges and benefit from the college community through which they get to know the locals and their customs.
With a history of over half a century, the Yale-China Chinese Language Centre (CLC) is at the forefront of Chinese learning techniques and is one of the largest centres of its kind worldwide. The CLC offers Putonghua and Cantonese courses at all levels. International students are welcome to take up to 6 units of approved Chinese language courses per term as part of their programme of study.

Areas of studies open to international students include:

Arts

Business Administration
Accountancy, Decision sciences & managerial economics, Finance, Hotel & tourism management, Management, and Marketing

Education
Sports science & physical education

Engineering
Computer science & engineering, Electronic engineering, Information engineering, Mechanical & automation engineering, and Systems engineering & engineering management

Law
(Only available to law major students meeting individual course pre-requisites)

Medicine
Public health & primary care

Science
Chemistry, Life sciences, Mathematics, Physics and Statistics

For a comprehensive list of courses which are taught in English and normally available to international students, please visit www.oal.cuhk.edu.hk.

Centre for China Studies
Courses offered by the Contemporary China studies programme are all taught in English and are popular among international students who are either striving for in-depth knowledge on China or just want to catch a glimpse of Chinese culture or society irrespective of what majors they are. A sample of the many courses include:

- China on Screen
- Chinese Business and Economy
- Chinese Society in Transformation
- Contemporary Chinese Popular Culture
- Investment and Finance in China
- War and Revolution in China

With more than 140 major and minor programmes offered by 58 schools/departments in English and Chinese, you will be able to tailor-make a study programme that meets your academic needs. You can further your major or minor studies, explore a completely new discipline, or concentrate on language and cultural studies.
Cultural experience is an integral part of your experience at CUHK and is something which you cannot acquire from the classroom. To fully maximise your experience at CUHK, cultural, extra-curricular and sports programmes are available to you.

Orientation
An extensive orientation programme prepares you for your stay and study at CUHK and covers information on academics, student life, Chinese culture, Hong Kong society and support services available at CUHK. It will be an excellent opportunity to get acquainted with fellow international students.

Community service programme
Opportunities are available to international students to engage in community service. For example, CLOVER is a cultural diversity and voluntary service programme in which local, Mainland and international students join hands in providing community services to those in need.

Cultural and extra-curricular programmes
Many informal learning opportunities are provided outside the classroom. Cultural activities include field trips, teaching-in-China programme, teaching-in-Hong Kong programme, martial arts classes and many more.

Accommodation
Undergraduate international students live in shared on-campus accommodation at one of the nine colleges. They are conveniently located across the campus and easily accessible with the on-campus bus system. Living with a local roommate will no doubt help you quickly adapt to the new environment and culture.

Meeting the locals
There will be countless opportunities to meet local students at classes, canteens, karaoke boxes, hiking trips, BBQs and other social gatherings. Be active, open-minded and daring.

Student organisations
CUHK boasts a variety of student organisations, from Chinese martial arts to photography to drama. Those within academic departments and colleges are often the most active. Most take place in Cantonese but international students can still participate with rewarding results.

Student services and facilities
A range of facilities, resources and support services are available to aid students at CUHK. They include computing labs, libraries, health clinic, counselling services, sports facilities, canteens, bookstores, supermarket, banks and even a hair salon.

College activities
Colleges at CUHK organise a variety of cultural and sports activities including singing contests, varsity sporting competitions, drama nights, festive celebrations and language enhancement programmes. Dessert nights are not to be missed.

CUHK has been offering a summer programme to exchange and study abroad students since 2004. Some 600 international students are attracted to CUHK annually from all over the world. International students are joined by local students in academic and cultural immersion. This is a great opportunity for you to gain a Hong Kong and Asian perspective from your peers and to explore Chinese culture through activities, excursions and field trips.

July Session

A five-week programme commencing in late-June. You enroll in up to two 3-credit courses. Areas of study include business & management, China studies, Chinese language (Cantonese and Putonghua), environment, science & technology, and humanities & social science. An optional tour to Beijing allows you to visit major local attractions including the Great Wall, Forbidden City, Tiananmen Square, Olympic stadiums and Summer Palace.

August Session

A three-week programme in the month of August offering intensive Chinese language training. You enroll in up to two 3-credit courses. There is opportunity to acquire pragmatic competence through classroom learning and immersion activities.
Summer Undergraduate Research Programme

The Summer Undergraduate Research programme (SURP) provides an opportunity for international undergraduate students to undertake research attachment for eight weeks. Students will conduct research under the supervision of a CUHK faculty member and earn 3 credits upon successful completion of the programme.
