

The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Dr. Barbara Kwok Young Postdoctoral Researcher Travel Grants Guidelines for Applicants

Deadline: 3 February 2023

The Dr. Barbara Kwok Young Postdoctoral Researcher Travel Grants were set up with the generous donation from alumna Dr. Barbara Pik-lin Kwok. The Grants aim to recognise research achievements of CUHK early-career researchers through the provision of financial support to attend conferences, seminars, and short-term visits/training outside Hong Kong which would further their professional development and career advancement.

The Grants will offer financial support of up to HK$25,000 for each successful application.

Eligibility

- a) Full-time staff with doctoral degrees who are in the positions of Research Associates, Postdoctoral Fellows, Research Fellows, or Senior Research Fellows.
- b) Applicants must be within 10 years of being conferred a doctoral degree at the time of application.
- c) Applicants must remain as full-time staff in the aforementioned positions at the time of application, award, and travel.
- d) Applicants should have completed at least three months of service at the University at the time of participation in the awarded activity.
- e) No eligible applicants can receive more than one grant per year.
- f) Appointees on no-pay leave (including no-pay study leave) are not eligible for the award.
- g) Successful applicants are required to remain in university service for at least four months after completion of the proposed activity. Awardees will be requested to repay the relevant award amount on a pro-rata basis in the event that the post-award service period is not fulfilled.

Activities and Scope of Support

- a) Applicants should submit applications with concrete plans for activities including:
 - i. Present an academic paper authored or co-authored by the applicant at an international conference or seminar organised by a regional/international professional body¹; or
 - ii. Visit laboratories or universities outside Hong Kong under a well-planned schedule to foster potential collaboration or conduct research work; or
 - iii. Attend a short-term training course to advance the applicant's research skills and expertise required to build his/her academic career; or
 - iv. Conduct other academic activities.
- b) The activities should be carried out and completed between 1 May 2023 and 30 April 2024.
- c) The Grants can be used to cover the following items:
 - i. Economy class return air ticket between Hong Kong and the designated city to be visited;
 - ii. Onsite accommodation during the activity period²;
 - iii. Registration fee for the conferences/seminars; and
 - iv. Training fee for short courses.
- d) The cost of local transportation will not be covered.
- e) If more than one applicant will be presenting the same paper at the conference concerned, the provisions will be pro-rated among the applicants applying for the award.
- f) Research activities that are funded or partially funded by other research projects or funding programmes will not be considered.

¹ Depending on the discipline concerned, presentation of original works (e.g. work of art, music composition) at a seminar/workshop/exhibition/concert may also be considered.

² The cost of accommodation are capped at 80% of per diem allowance designated for the city to be visited. The rate of per diem allowance can be found on CUHK Finance Office website.

Application Procedures

- a) Applicants should complete an online application form and submit together with the following supporting documents by Friday, 3 February 2023:
 - i. Curriculum Vitae highlighting research accomplishments, such as publication records and research awards, among others. The applicant should demonstrate his/her research excellence by indicating the impact factor of the academic journals publishing his/her past papers, and importance and uniqueness of his/her research awards (e.g. how many awards conferred a year internationally / nationally / locally).
 - ii. Details of the activity, such as:
 - A copy of the official document indicating details of the conference/seminar and the amount of registration fee, if applicable;
 - A copy of the abstract/paper to be presented and acceptance/invitation for presentation;
 - Outline of the training course with fee and/or registration confirmation; and/or
 - An invitation letter from the host institution (The host should clearly specify his/her involvement in the applicant's visit, in addition to the logistical support to be provided to the applicant).
- b) The application should be supported by the designated supervisor and head of department/unit. The endorsement form (download here) should be completed and returned by email (c/o Ms. Olivia Kwok - Dr. Barbara Kwok Young Postdoctoral Researcher Travel Grants; oa1_schemes@cuhk.edu.hk) in pdf format.

Selection

- a) Selection will be made on a competitive basis. Up to two applicants will be selected by each Faculty.
- b) Priority will be given to applicants who achieve research excellence, as evidenced by, for example, outstanding PhD thesis awards, recognition of presentations at international conferences, or publications of PhD research work in top-tier journals.
- c) Applicants will be notified of the results by March 2023.

Post-visit Report

Successful applicants are required to submit a report within 30 days upon completion of the visit/training. The report should be endorsed by the appropriate authorities at CUHK.

Other Arrangements

- a) Request for funding disbursement should be made with the aforementioned post-visit report along with the original invoices and receipts within one month upon completion of the approved activity.
- b) Successful applicants will be responsible for arranging the practicalities of the activity, including but not limited to, traveling plans, visa application (if any), accommodation, and personal health and hospitalisation insurance coverage as required.
- c) Air ticket and hotel accommodation must be purchased in accordance with the 'University Ordering and Tender Procedures'.
- d) Successful applicants will normally be covered under the 'CUHK's Group Travel Insurance \(Staff\)'. They are advised to purchase additional travel insurance as deemed necessary³.
